About the role

Dartford Borough Council have over 4000 social homes throughout the local area. With an established track record for maintaining quality homes, delivering new affordable housing and investing in local communities. This is an exciting opportunity to join the Council and we are seeking a skilled and experienced Housing Compliance Surveyor to join our compliance team.

The role will have responsibility for asbestos management across our stock and is a critical role ensuring the safety of our residents and properties by carrying out asbestos and legionella surveys and inspections and managing a programme of surveys and risk assessments across our housing stock.

The candidate must be enthusiastic, a good communicator and Asbestos P405 qualified, with experience of managing asbestos and water across housing assets.

This post is considered by DBC to be a customer-facing position. The Council therefore has a statutory duty under Part 7 of the Immigration Act (2016) to ensure that post holders have a command of spoken English sufficient for the effective performance of the job requirements.

Skills, Knowledge and Experience:

- Experience in asbestos surveying and legionella risk assessments within housing or a similar environment.
- Knowledge of relevant legislation and best practice (Control of Asbestos Regulations, ACOP L8).
- P405 qualification (or equivalent) for asbestos management is essential.
- Legionella risk assessment training or certification is desirable.
- Strong attention to detail and ability to work independently.
- Excellent communication and reporting skills.
- Proficient in Microsoft Office and compliance management systems.
- Must hold a full UK driving licence and access to a vehicle for work.

Disability Confident Employer

DBC is Disability Confident Employer and welcomes applications from candidates with a disability.

We operate a Guaranteed Interview to any candidate with a disability who meets the minimum criteria for the role. If you have a disability and are applying for a particular role, please ensure that you indicate this on your application form, and advise us of any reasonable adjustments which you may require.

A disability under the Equality Act 2010 is defined as a physical or mental impairment which has a substantial and long term adverse effect on your ability to carry out normal day to day activities.

Care Leavers

We will offer an interview to care leavers who meet the minimum criteria for the post. If you are a care leaver, you must inform us of your care leaver status at the time of your application.

Armed Forces

As part of the Council's commitment to the Armed Forces Covenant and to ensure that ex-armed forces personnel are not disadvantaged as a result of their service, veterans of the armed forces and/or their spouses/civil partners, applying for a job at the Council will be guaranteed the offer of an interview, provided that:

- They or their spouse/civil partner are currently serving in the armed forces and are within 12 weeks of their discharge date
- They or their spouse/civil partner were in long-term employment with the armed forces within the last five years
- They meet the essential criteria for the advertised role
- They confirm that they wish any application for a post at the Council to be considered under the guaranteed interview scheme.

Core Behaviours

Values are a key component of a healthy workplace culture because they clarify how the Council and its staff should behave and help to ensure that everybody is working towards the same goals. They provide the framework within which employees can test decisions, accomplish tasks, and interact with others.

The Council's core behaviours reflect the special qualities that attract, engage and retain the talent that we want; and will be used to shape our culture by influencing the work we do, and how we do it. These behaviours focus the way we expect employees to approach daily business practices, conduct communications and interact with one another.

The Council has five core behaviours that guide the way we think and act as an organisation, and each member of staff is responsible for incorporating them into their day to day roles.

Core Behaviours

Communication

Demonstrated by:

- Actively listening to customers and colleagues and asking questions to provide clarity
- Seeking to understand customer and colleague needs and proactively looking for ways to exceed expectations
- Being clear, concise and courteous
- Providing regular and timely feedback
- Leaving a positive impression of the Council

Respect

Demonstrated by:

- Creating trusted relationships with customers, colleagues and communities to achieve mutual goals
- Treating customers and colleagues with respect and dignity and valuing others as individuals
- Learning from others and valuing differences
- Being thoughtful, tactful and considerate
- Acting with integrity, loyalty and trust

Accountability

Demonstrated by:

- Taking the initiative and ownership of our decision, actions, performance and behaviour
- Learning from our mistakes and seeking out opportunities to improve
- Delivering on promises to customers and colleagues
- Being proud of what we do

Adaptability/Flexibility

Demonstrated by:

- Displaying a 'can do' attitude and being innovative
- Embracing change
- Getting out of our comfort zones and creating our own opportunities
- Looking for the positive in every situation
- Challenging negativity and bad behaviour

Collaboration

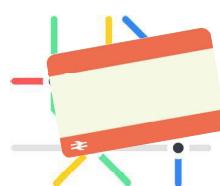

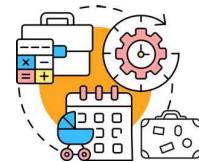

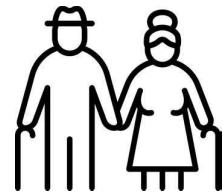

Demonstrated by:

- Sharing ideas and challenges with our colleagues and actively seek out their opinion
- Working together beyond departmental boundaries to achieve superior results
- Ensuring everyone has an equal opportunity to share and contribute ideas
- Being part of the solution
